

The Langhe : with your bike, among the vineyards of Barolo!

A different way to visit the Langhe in Piedmont, home of Barolo and Barbaresco ,two of the best red wines in the world! A tour designed especially for those who enjoy cycling but are not too much trained. Trails no more than 40 km per day, on a slope, panoramic views, mainly on easy, flat, downhill and short climbs routes . No stress and no chalinging paths, designed with stops along the way to admire the scenery, visits, tastings, lunches, to learn about Piedmont wines, but not only. We will end the trip with a day's shopping in exclusive shops in Biella, staying in an old castle ..

PROGRAM

Day 1: on your arrival at the airport, A 8 seats bus will be waiting for you and will take you to Venaria, a town near Turin, to visit the stunning Royal Palace.
