

TOUR OF THE THREE BEST ITALIAN GOLF COURSE!

A special tour for golf lovers: Castelconturbia, Royal Park I Roveri and, to end with, Le Betulle - the best Italian golf clubs for a unique tour.

First stop: Golf Club Castelconturbia

In 1898 the Conturbier Golf Club was the only golf course in Piedmont and only two golf courses were at the time in Italy.

The modern 27 holes golf course, planned and built up by Robert Trent Jones Sr., covers an area of over one million square meters, including and widening the area of the old existing nine holes. An ideal place among secular trees, streams, small lakes and gentle undulations of the land for performing one of his most successful courses which fits in a harmonious way into the splendid and intact countryside in the back-ground of the massif of the MountRosa. It has been two times venue of the Italian Open (1991 & 1998): course record 66 held by Josè Maria Olazabal and Costantino Rocca.

Second stop: Golf Club Royal Park I Roveri

In the earth of La Mandria, a secular park not far from Turin, you are welcomed by the excellence in golf: 18 holes designed by Trent Jones and the new course planned by Michael Hurdzan, internationally recognized as an authority in the development of golf courses; avant-garde services and the pleasure of playing on an exceptional green.

Third stop: Golf Club Le Betulle

The Golf Club Le Betulle in Magnano Biellese, rated best golf club of Italy last year, and alternately sharing the three top positions with the other golf clubs included in this tour, was founded in the late 1950s. The course (18 holes, par 73 measuring 6497 meters) was designed by the famous English architect, John Morrison and, thanks to its excellent design and obstacles, it appeals to golfers at all levels. Here you can enjoy an unhurried, tranquil round in a beautiful natural ambiance.

The cosy Golf Hotel Le Betulle offers 17 rooms with every possible comfort, all of which have a private terrace with a view of the green and in particular hole n° 9. The Club-House was built in the best traditional English style and hosts a famous restaurant with typical Piedmont and Mediterranean cuisine, a bar, a TV room and a game room.
